

CENTENNIAL ARMENIAN GENOCIDE EXHIBIT

PRESENTED BY

STUDIO

GALLERY

ARMENIAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION
OF RHODE ISLAND

Preserving The Past For The Future.

APRIL 2ND - MAY 2ND

An Orphaned Portrait

CENTENNIAL ARMENIAN GENOCIDE EXHIBIT APRIL 2ND - MAY 2ND

Featuring original artwork, historic artwork, archival material, and propaganda affiches, books, and heirlooms from the era. Historical materials will be supplied by The Armenian Genocide Museum & Institute in Yerevan, Armenia; The Armenian Historical Association of Rhode Island (AHARI) and from privately owned collections.

SPECIAL LIVE PERFORMANCES - FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC THURSDAYS FROM 6-9PM

Multiple presentations will take place starting approximately 7:30PM

- April 9th Artist Talk & Live Musical Performances
- April 16th Opening Reception at 5:00PM / Gallery Night Providence
- April 23rd Guitar Recital & Readings
- April 30th Live Musical & Painting Performances

Bérge Ara Zobian, Gallery Director
Studio Z

@ the Butcher Block Mill
25 Eagle Street • Providence, RI • 401.751.1970

GALLERY HOURS:

Thursday-Saturday 12:00-6:00PM
or by appointment or by chance.

For more information, visit: galleryzprov.com or armeniangenocide100years.com

Genocide - It Doesn't Stop

My Grandmother's Family Portrait

Is There Anybody Out There?

Images courtesy of John Avakian Art Work