

The Armenian Historical Association of Rhode Island

cordially invites you to attend a

Mock Armenian Wedding

followed by an AHARI produced

"Our Wedding Day"

presentation & exhibit

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 28, 2012

1:30 - 3:30

Egavian Cultural Center
70 Jefferson Street ~ Providence, RI
(Please be seated by 1:45)

EXHIBIT & PRESENTATION

A narrator will explain the symbolism and meaning of each segment of an authentic Armenian Wedding as demonstrated by our performers.

A multi-media presentation will follow the ceremony which includes a century of wedding photos and film.

An exhibit of Armenian wedding artifacts and memorabilia will also be available for viewing.

Refreshments will be served following the program.

THIS AHARI SPONSORED EVENT IS FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.

SUBMISSIONS STILL BEING ACCEPTED

The sooner we receive wedding family photos, videos and old films for inclusion in the exhibit, the better chance you will have for their inclusion into the video presentation.

For additional information and free scanning of your photos, contact:

Martha Jamgochian: jmartha9@gmail.com or

Joyce Yeremian: joycey41@cox.net or 401.354.8770

OF SPECIAL NOTE

The "Our Wedding Day" presentation will honor any submissions that group extended family photos together. For example starting with oldest generation (even if before arriving to Rhode Island) to most recent generation.
